ABOUT US

Jaggers is quality food, served by friendly people. Created by the founder of Texas Roadhouse, Kent Taylor, each restaurant maintains a casual atmosphere, while still serving up a huge impact in its community. The first Jaggers location opened in Noblesville, Indiana, in 2014, and is growing in locations across the U.S., like Kentucky, Texas, and North Carolina. Jaggers has taken fast-casual to a whole new level with real ingredients and an authentic taste we're known for.
